Justice Services – Young Adult Court Orientation Q&A

| Question | Answer |
|---|--|
| Can our subcontractor (Goodwill) be invited to YWD and Justice Services grantee meetings to help with networking and connections. | Yes, subcontractor's can attend the regular Justice Service grantee meetings along with the lead agency (Felton). |
| We may not be able to meet the YAC Terminations/Withdrawals performance measure because numerous outside factors may impact whether participants are terminated or withdraw. Concerns about what will be publicized about the programs success. | We want to make sure that the target for this measure accurately reflects program performance. After the upcoming evaluation report on Young Adult Court is released, we will review and adjust the target for this measure accordingly. |
| Re: MOUs. Our clients are TAY and some may not be in SFUSDs system. | Ok, still complete the MOU as part of our grantee requirements. |
| Re: MOUs. Can we modify our MOU to include additional language about accessing IEPs | We recommend that you get an MOU that meets DCYF's data reporting requirements. SFUSD has a process for amending MOUs to address additional data requests after the MOUs have been approved. |
| Re: Surveys. Program has continuous graduations throughout the year. | Surveys are central to DCYF's grant monitoring and evaluation efforts. We will share copies of the survey after they have been finalized. |
| Re: Surveys. Will our subcontractor (Sunset) need to complete surveys as well? Goodwill is also a subcontractor. | Yes. After surveys and administration guidelines have been released, please reach out with any questions. |
